

TRANSITIONS R US

Mentoring Matters

Transition- Envision-Decision

These one on one sessions are for YOU when:

- The story of you is changing and life becomes challenging
- You wish to reconnect with the fire of your life
- You deepen your awareness of envisioned options for renewal
- You acknowledge successes and plan for a personally designed future
- You prefer a private setting to explore your transition's calling

“I have had the pleasure of working with Pat to create a positive, forward -moving life for myself...with her understanding and support I have been able to make many of the changes I was hoping for. Pat is the perfect person to support any woman wanting to travel along a new path of creativity and learning.” LK Vancouver

I am:

- a retired educator re-imagining a life of conscious aging
- living through transitions as an entrepreneur, musician and writer
- creating a context for others to explore living lives of active wisdom
- facilitating conversations of renewed identity, passion and purpose
- celebrating achievements and the magic of beginnings
- building a courageous community to share stories of the road
